

June 27, 2011

THE 3RD INTENSIVE WORKSHOP IN KOREAN
ARCHAEOLOGY: Early Agriculture and Society (c.
1500 BC to AD 935)

- YUN Ho-pil (Vice Director of Archaeological Research, Historical Culture Center, Gyeongnam Development Institute, Changwon Korea)
“Dry-field Archaeology and Excavation Methods”
- LEE Gyoung-Ah (Professor, Department of Anthropology, University of Oregon, Eugene)
“Dry field farming during the Mumun Period in southern Korea”
- AHN Sungmo (Professor, Department of Archaeology and Art, Wonkwang University, Iksan, Korea)
“Crops and Nut Use during the Proto-Three Kingdoms(c. AD 1-300)

- Discussants:
 - Ksenija Borojevic (Professor, Department of Archaeology, Boston University)
 - Virginia Popper (Professor, Department of Anthropology, University of Massachusetts-Boston)
 - Shoda Shin'ya (Researcher, Nara National Institute for Cultural Properties)
 - Ko Min-jung (Researcher, Historical Culture Center, Gyeongnam Development Institute, Changwon Korea)

September 30, 2011

EARLY KOREA PROJECT WORKSHOP: Silk Road Glass in Korea

- LEE Insook
“Silk Road Glass in Korea and Overview of Early Glass in Korean Archaeology”
- KWON Oh Young
“Historical and Archaeological Contexts of the Inflow of Silk Road Glass in Early Korea”
- James Lankton
“Glass Beads in Korea and their Silk Road Stories”
- KIM Kyu Ho
“Early Primary Glass Production in Korea”
- Discussants:
 - Rowan Flad (Harvard University)
 - Eugene Wang (Harvard University)
 - Katherine Eremin (Harvard Art Museums)
 - Mark Kenoyer (University of Wisconsin-Madison)