UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIPS FOR KOREA

(Research)

The 2023 deadline is February 28, 2023. Details on the KI website on how to apply. The Korea Institute will offer hybrid Research Assistantships for Korea focused projects supervised by Harvard faculty for summer 2023. There will be a range of opportunities for Harvard undergraduates to work on faculty research projects in a variety of capacities. RAships are a great opportunity for students with little research experience to get hands-on exposure to the research world. Work is arranged and directed by faculty members, who will directly supervise student RAs. The student and faculty member will discuss and clarify in advance the research responsibilities and outcomes. Students may assist with data collection, data analysis, literature reviews, or other aspects of a faculty project. If awarded a KI Research Assistantship, the students are paid $20/hour (up to $2,000 total summer stipend per Assistantship) over 5-10 weeks, based on the needs of the faculty project. Korean language requirements vary. Listings of 2023 faculty projects will be on the KI website updated beginning in January 2023.
