UNDERGRADUATE SUMMER RESEARCH TRAVEL GRANTS TO KOREA (Research)

Online applications are due on CARAT February 5, 2024. Korea Institute Undergraduate Summer Travel Grants are awarded to Harvard undergraduates in the humanities or social sciences to use in Korea for research and/or field work relating to a senior honors thesis in an area of Korean studies. Ordinarily, the award covers the cost of travel and research related expenses for the research project. Typically, undergraduate applicants must have at least two years of Korean language training or equivalent proficiency in the language. In the case of exceptionally strong projects, more limited language background may be considered. More details on the KI website.

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIPS FOR KOREA (Research)

The 2024 deadline is February 28, 2024. Details on the KI website on how to apply. The Korea Institute will offer hybrid Research Assistantships for Korea focused projects supervised by Harvard faculty for summer 2024. There will be a range of opportunities for Harvard undergraduates to work on faculty research projects in a variety of capacities. RAships are a great opportunity for students with little research experience to get hands-on exposure to the research world. Work is arranged and directed by faculty members, who will directly supervise student RAs. The student and faculty member will discuss and clarify in advance the research responsibilities and outcomes.

Students may assist with data collection, data analysis, literature reviews, or other aspects of a faculty project. If awarded a KI Research Assistantship, students are paid $20/hour (up to $2,000 total summer stipend per Assistantship) over 5-10 weeks, based on the needs of the faculty project. Korean language requirements vary. Listings of 2024 faculty projects will be on the KI website updated beginning in January 2024.

KI SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM IN SEOUL, KOREA (Internships) [Still TBC for Summer 2024]
